Cecil Brown, trustee of the estate of Kaloio Kanao, deceased, wife of ex-Governor Paul Kanao, has filed an inventory showing the estate to consist of real property on Kauai and in this city, valued at $31,500, and personal property worth $1,600.

BLANCHE BATES.

She Talks of the Sufferings of the Returned Soldiers.

Blanche Bates has returned for a six weeks engagement with the Frawley Company in San Francisco, and at the close of that period will rejoin the Daly company, of which she is a permanent member.

While in the east she was one of a committee of ladies who organized themselves to look after the comfort of the western troops quartered there. She assisted in distributing fruits and delicacies to the sick and wounded men from Colorado, Montana and other western states.

"I tried my best to find the troops from California," she said to a San Francisco Chronicle reporter, "but I am sorry to say I could not find a solitary one of them. If I had been able to find them, I think I would have been tempted to kiss them. There has been a great deal of needless suffering among the soldiers, and I was unfortunately a witness of much of it. Coming west there were two carloads of troops attached to our train from New York to Chicago, and the way in which those poor sick men were huddled into those cars was really a shame. The blame seemed to belong entirely to the railroad company. The accommodations were insufficient. The men were actually dying in the cars, and had no place to lay their heads. Their sufferings were something terrible.

One Large Scar

Is All That Remains of Great Scrofula Sores

Neighbors Could Not Bear to Look Upon Her—A Grand, Complete Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla After Others Failed.

"I was taken with neuralgia in my head and eyes. Not long after this, a scrofula sore appeared on my left cheek, extending from my upper lip to my eye. Other sores came on my neck and on my right arm and one of my limbs. They were very troublesome and painful and soon became great running sores. My face looked so bad that some of my neighbors could not bear to look at me and advised me to wear a bandage, but I feared this would irritate the sore and make it worse. So I

Could Not Hide the Sores.

My niece, who was familiar with a case similar to mine, which had been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, urged me to try it. Finally I was persuaded to do so, and in a short time I saw it was helping me. The sores began to heal and the neuralgia in my head was better. In a few months the sores on my arms and limbs all healed; those on my neck gradually disappeared and now they are all gone. I have never had any symptom of scrofula since. One large scar on my right arm is all the sign that remains of my terrible affliction. The neuralgia is also cured." MRS. J. M. HATCH, Etna, New Hampshire.
